THE Ship Subsidy bill, I think is about to die a-borning. The people has spoke.

Also, Volstead lost out, thanks to a discriminating public returning to its better sense.

THE annual Membership Roll Call of the Red Cross is now on. Lend your aid to a worthy cause.

SECRETARY HUGHES' certificate of character for Senator Newberry did not appeal to the voters, it seems.

THE county of Bollinger elected two Democrats—a Circuit Clerk and a Collector of the Revenue. The vote was close on the State and District offices.

THE Wheelers and the Shoops—not to mention the little Nationses and the residue of the salaried moral following—are still with us, and will remain. "There's money in it" for them.

WITH both houses of the new Legislature Democratic, Gov. Hyde will not cut a wide swath the coming two years. He has had his day—it was a parous one for the State—and the public draws a breath of relief.

JUDGE W. N. EVANS—for twenty-six years Judge of the 20th Circuit—died at his home in West Plains, November 13th, aged 73 years. He was well known all over the State.

LET Newberry keep his seat. He is a fine object-lesson. He served his Republican confreres well when they needed him. For them to kick him out now, it seems to me, would brand them with ingratitude. Let him stay as an example of the sin of being found out.

THE Farmington News is much peeved that the voters of St. Francois county did not give Congressman Rhodes 2,000 majority in the recent election because he had secured a tariff on lead. We suppose it is just the way you look at it. For his life the writer of these lines can not comprehend how any man who earns his living in the sweat of his brow could cast his vote for any Senator or Congressman who supported the infamous Fordney-McCumber tariff bill.

D., of Louisville, Kentucky, representative of the Foreign Missionary Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, will preach the sermon and lead in the dedication. David McKinney died at his home here Sunday morning, November 12, at 4 o'clock, after three or four days' illness. It is not definitely known just what ailed him, but it is generally thought it was something like acute indigestion. I have known David McKinney for more than twenty years, part of the time lived near neighbor to him, and during that period of time, I have always found him to be a good neighbor, an honest and upright citizen, always ready to lend a helping hand to any worthy cause or person actually needing help. The business relations I have had with him have always been entirely satisfactory; Mr. McKinney always being ready and willing to fulfill to the letter any contract or agreement he may have made. To the bereaved brothers, sisters and relatives of the deceased, we extend our profound and heartfelt sympathy.

Mr. E. B. Becker, who has been employed in St. Louis for a number of years, visited relatives and friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. McNab of Oaledonia was a business caller here Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Thomas Miller Saturday disposed of a lot of his household and kitchen furniture at public sale.

It seems that "white mule" makes its appearance here every week, usually on Saturday afternoon or night.

Mr. Charley Allers has rented his property, formerly occupied by Harvey Goggin, to a gentleman and his family, whose name I did not learn. Mr. Allers has several houses in town.

And still the footbridge remains in a "dangerous condition." It would certainly pay "the powers that be" to look at the bridge. How long shall we wait?

Hunters and Trespassers, Take Notice!

Keep off of my property! Enough said!
